

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale
A tale of a fateful raft.
That started from this Courtyard port Together we were trapped

We had our creative artist man
Ed spell checked all our charts
Five rafters set sail that day
For a four day tour -- A Four Day Tour

The weather started getting rough
In the gazebo we were trapped
If not for the focusing of Karl this week
The journey would be bust -- The journey would be bust

The rafters pushed right through the tasks
Learning all the 'somethings'
With flipping chart and bullets too
Picture frames and visual art
The maze, newby rafter, and something journey
Here at WhiteWater Teams.
